Chew Chun Wee
Chun Wee is the regional head of policy for ACCA, tasked with supporting its advocacy and policy work across ASEAN and Australia New Zealand. He is also a member of the MIA Steering Committee on IR in Malaysia. He works with key stakeholders to identify and drive new research initiatives that provide evidence-based policy and thinking impacting the business community and profession. He is a regular speaker and panel chair on topics ranging from evolution of corporate reporting, integrated thinking, the evolving role and skillset of finance leaders, talent strategy to the value of audit.

Francis Cyril
Mr. Cyril is a Partner in the Audit and Assurance Division of BDO. He is currently the International Integrated Reporting Council ASEAN representative, having been seconded from BDO. His role at the IIRC includes business network development globally for IIRC and outreach strategies in the ASEAN region. He also oversees the global report critique initiatives for the IIRC which is a core pillar of the IIRC’s Business Network programme. He is a member of ACCA Malaysia’s Public Practice Committee.

Jonathan Labrey
Jonathan Labrey leads the IIRC’s global policy work, which aims to create the conditions for Integrated Reporting to flourish and is the Chief Strategy Officer of the IIRC. Since joining the IIRC in March 2012, Jonathan has travelled widely and has developed a deep insight into the major trends and policy developments in corporate reporting across the world.

Prof. Mahendhiran Nair
Professor Mahendhiran Nair is the Chief Executive Officer of Monash Malaysia R&D Sdn Bhd and Vice President (Research & Development) at Monash University Malaysia. He is a Fellow of CPA (Australia). He is also a Professor of Econometrics & Business Statistics at Monash University Malaysia.

Paul W Chan
Paul was appointed an IIRC Ambassador in January 2017 to advocate for the strategic practices of integrated value creation thinking in the effective utilization of multi-capital resources in enhancing sustainable growth of the enterprise. Integrated Reporting <IR> is the trending corporate reporting framework globally that is also encoded in the Malaysian Code of Corporate Governance (MCCG 2017).
